

I am totally against deregulating broadcast ownership.

We must go back to our old regulatory standards and limit ownership of markets, not increase the ability of one entity to control our information.